

HARDING DECLARES HE IS UNPLEDGED AND "UNBOSSSED"

Only Promise He Has Made is to Organize
Federal Department of Public Welfare—
Says That He is the Freest Man That
Has Ever Been Nominated for Presidency

AKRON, O., Oct. 28.—Replying to charges of a "senate oligarchy," Senator Harding declared in a speech here tonight that he was not the candidate of any clique or combination, but was absolutely unpledged and "unbossed."

No senate oligarchy exists, the Republican nominee declared, and no group of men would control him if he were elected to the presidency.

He said the only promise he had made, which was not in the party platform, was his pledge to try to organize a federal department of public welfare.

"I am not anybody else's candidate," Senator Harding said. "I believe I am the freest man that was ever nominated by any party for the presidency of the United States."

"I can stand before you tonight and tell you that I am unpledged, I am unbossed."

"I haven't made a promise save one which isn't in the Republican platform, which is my covenant to the American people. The only additional promise is that we're going to try to write the conscience of America into a notable program for social justice in the United States."

In asking for a Republican senate Mr. Harding said that many of the difficulties of the last session were due to the slender Republican majority and to the fact that a number of so-called Republican senators were not always Republicans.

"I believe in the party government and asserted that he did not desire to be president unless a Republican congress also was elected to translate Republican promises into performance."

He made a special plea for a Republican senate declaring the nation owed to the present senate a debt of gratitude that never could be paid.

Charges of a "senate oligarchy," he pronounced as entirely false.

In stating his position on the league, Mr. Harding declared he had voted for ratification with reservations because that was the only way the senate could deal with the problem as it was presented by the president. He outlined the argument in favor of the reservations on mandates withdrawal and article x and said that all the Republican qualifications had been designed "to limit our obligations not to make them clearer."

The president's proposal for a mandate over Armenia the candidate asserted had shown in striking fashion the wisdom of the Republican reservations. He added that although the United States sympathized deeply with Armenia it could not afford to send an army of 70,000 to 100,000 there after Great Britain and France had taken all the desirable territory bordering on Armenia, leaving to Uncle Sam the starving and oppressed people of Armenia.

Quoting from a British publication which declared the United States was doing more than any other nation in the world rehabilitating by its contributions to the European relief the nominee said:

Healing Heart of World.
"That is the soul of America. Talk about breaking the heart of the world. America is healing the heart of the world. But even if the heart-breaking tragedy were true, I would rather break the heart of the world than destroy the soul of American nationality."

In his discussion of party government and the league Senator Harding said:

"I know pretty well that the American people are thinking of calling the Republican party back to service in the convention. I have a very strong conviction that you are going to elect a Republican as president of the United States but I warn you don't do it unless you intend to put the Republican party in power in the congress as well as in the executive office. I would not want to be your president unless you are going to give us a Republican congress to translate Republican promises into legislative enactments."

"It is very important to have a majority in the United States senate and you ought always to think of the senate as saving to you your American liberty. Don't be distressed about the so-called senatorial oligarchy. There isn't any. I don't think we could have succeeded this year in harmonizing the senate into a completely useful agent if it had not been for the interference of the chief executive, who was not satisfied with running his own end of Pennsylvania avenue."

Challenges Democrats.
"Oh," they say, "you cannot tell where Harding stands on the league." Well, let's see if I can

MR. TUMULTY STEPS BEFORE THE CURTAIN FOR A FEW REMARKS

Tells His Audience Something of the Leading Actor

TELLS SOMETHING OF THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—An intimate picture "of the manner of man this Woodrow Wilson really is" based on ten years as his private secretary and touched here and there with hitherto unpublished incidents in the president's official life was drawn tonight by Joseph P. Tumulty, speaking at a Democratic mass meeting, just over the line in Maryland.

Mr. Tumulty described the president as "a man as strangely misunderstood by some and as violently misrepresented by others as any of the many who have held the office of American politics." He had long desired, he said, to tell country what he knew of Mr. Wilson's character but had refrained in the knowledge that the president who shrinks from self exaltation would resent exploitation by his friends.

Tumulty Modestly Steps Out.
With the approach of Mr. Wilson's retirement to private life, however, Secretary Tumulty continued, "it seems to me not improper that just before the curtain rises on the last act, I modestly step out from my obscurity in the wings and tell the audience a few things about the leading actor in this great drama of the past eight years."

Recalling his ten years in the "intimate relationship of a private secretary," the speaker said: "I may be presumed to know at least as much about him as the gentlemen who discourse volubly of him in Pullman smokers, on the golf links, and in the clubs, who you that all they say is fact, for they had it on the word of a friend who passed thru Washington once and heard a man say that another man said, etc."

Among incidents on which he drew to illustrate his subject, Mr. Tumulty recalled the reaction of the president to the applause which greeted delivery of his war message to congress on April 6, 1917.

INTERNATIONAL REGATT TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Old Tars Impressed by Graceful Lines of the Yankee Boat at Anchor and Are Anxious to See Her Perform.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 28.—Keen eyes will watch the Yankee Schooner Esperanto tomorrow when she comes to anchor in the Gloucester fishing boat harbor. The course she will sail Saturday against Delawarean pride of the Nova Scotia fishing fleet and Canadian entry in the international regatta. The old tars who have been speculating over the relative merits of the two craft have seen the Yankee boat at anchor, and have been duly impressed by her graceful lines, but they want to see her perform in order to get a line on the probable outcome of the races. The Delawarean is expected to sail at dawn tomorrow for this port from Lunenburg and may be a chance for the old salts to compare the two vessels.

MURDERED MAN LEAVES LARGE ESTATE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—The estate left by Jacob C. Denton, for whose murder Mrs. Louis Peete, of Denver, was indicted yesterday, is valued at $125,000 according to a petition for letters of administration on file today in the county clerk's office.

The petitioner is Judge Rush Avery named as administrator in Denton's will.

"I am for Walker for governor," he said, "not only because I feel that way personally, but because I deem it my duty to support the Farmer-Labor party since the international convention of the United Mine Workers of America unanimously passed a resolution instructing its international officers to help establish and assist in building a national Farmer-Labor party."

Mr. Farrington formerly was a member of the advisory committee of the Republican party in Illinois.

WHEAT HOLDING MOVEMENT HAS REACHED TEXAS

RAILROADS MUST WORK OUT THEIR OWN SALVATION

Private Ownership of Roads Depends on Themselves

MUST REALIZE THEIR RESPONSIBILITY

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—Whether private ownership of railroads will continue to be the economic policy of the country "depends very largely upon the railroads themselves," said Daniel W. Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and chairman of the advisory committee of the Association of Railroad Executives in an address tonight.

"It may fairly be said that congress by the Esch-Cummings railroad act has made a preferred class of the railway workers, because so far as I know this is the first time that congress has ever said that any particular class of people should be given at all times and under all conditions just and reasonable wages, and just and reasonable working conditions," he said.

"I firmly believe that as the law comes to be better understood by the railroad workers as a whole they will realize that they have been made a preferred class in which event I venture to predict that we shall be free from railway strikes in the future because the law provides a way by which they can obtain without striking everything that they could reasonably expect to obtain even if they did strike."

Depends On Railroads.
"Whether private ownership continues to be the economic policy of this country depends very largely upon the railroad managers themselves."

"If they are men of vision and if they realize their responsibilities as semi-public servants, as well as trustees of properties of great value owned alike by small and large investors as I believe they do, then I also believe they will succeed in their undertaking."

"Conditions of the railways as a whole have already much improved since the termination of federal control and I feel confident that within the next six or eight months perhaps much sooner the carriers will be able once more to handle currently the business that is offered."

JOHN EVERS WILL MANAGE CUBS

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Johnny Evers will manage the Chicago Nationals next season, it was announced today by William Veeck, president of the club. Evers will succeed Fred Mitchell, and is expected to arrive in Chicago in a short time. He now is in Cuba with the New York Giants.

Evers broke into the major leagues as a second baseman in 1905. He made good from the start and remained with the Cubs until 1913. He later went to Boston and then with the New York Nationals as one of Manager McGraw's assistants. Evers served overseas during the world war in the service of the Knights of Columbus and did much to promote baseball among the troops.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ENDORSES SMALL

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Endorsement of Len Small, Republican candidate for Governor, was made in a statement issued today by the anti-Saloon League over the signature of F. Scott McBride, state superintendent of the league.

"Before the primary the statement said in a letter to ministers, 'we said we believed Len Small stands in favor of dry legislation and law enforcement. We are glad after investigating all charges to the contrary that they are false and renew this statement concerning Mr. Small.'"

James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic candidate, the statement said, had served in the United States senate from 1913 to 1919 and "voted against every dry bill in the senate and for every wet bill during his service."

LEN SMALL PROMISES HOME RULE FOR ILLINOIS

Chicago, Oct. 28.—A pledge that if elected he would do all in his power to abolish the public utilities commission and to give the people of Illinois "home rule" was made by Len Small, Republican candidate for governor, in addresses in Chicago today and tonight. SAYS ROOSEVELT HELPED TO DRAW UP RESERVATIONS

Sister Tells New York Audience in Address

THOUGHT LEAGUE WOULD BREED WAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Former Theodore Roosevelt helped to draw up the League of Nations covenant, declared Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, sister of Mr. Roosevelt, in an address here tonight.

"When Theodore Roosevelt was ill in Roosevelt hospital, Senator Lodge wrote asking if he could see him," said Mrs. Robinson, "and my brother asked me to let him know he will be welcome. So senator Lodge made a trip to New York and every one of the League reservations, for which Governor Cox has called Senator Lodge an arch-conspirator and traitor, was arranged in this conference and approval by Theodore Roosevelt."

Colonel Roosevelt at the time of the League conference added Mrs. Robinson said he felt the league of nations would be a war breeder rather than a war healer.

BELIEVE THERE WILL BE GENERAL HOLDING OF CROPS

Expect Recommendation of Conference Friday

COMMEND COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—A plan for a general crop holding movement by farmers until their products will bring a price at least equal to the cost of production is expected to be recommended tomorrow to the agricultural conference in session here by a special committee appointed to devise a plan of procedure. A resolution commending Comptroller of the Currency Williams was adopted by the conference.

"Resolved," it said "that the national board of farm organizations express their full appreciation of the sympathetic appreciation shown by Mr. John S. Williams, comptroller of the currency, in the welfare of the farmers of this country and his fearless exposure of the high rates of interest charged by the New York banks the effect of which has been to draw the money from interior banks where it is most needed for legitimate business and used in New York for speculative purposes."

PROHIBITION AGENT DALRYMPLE RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The resignation, effective Oct. 31, of A. V. Dalrymple, supervising federal prohibition agent at Chicago, was formally announced late today by Commissioner Williams of the bureau of internal revenue. NEW YORK CITY MARKS BACK TO THE OLDEN DAYS

Big Political Parade Witnessed by Gov. Coolidge

THOUSANDS IN LINE OF MARCH

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—New York harked back to the traditions of the last century tonight when its historic thoroughfares, Broadway and Fifth Avenue resounded to the tread of thousands marching behind Calvin Coolidge, Republican candidate for vice-president. Not since 1896 when thousands of marchers fell into line under the colors of McKinley has the city witnessed so great a political demonstration in its streets. Leading the column Governor Coolidge rode in an automobile from Worth street and Lower Broadway to the Union League Club on Fifth avenue where he left the car and watched the passing procession on a reviewing stand. Leaving this point of vantage long before the parade was over the candidate went to Carnegie Hall, where he addressed an audience which taxed its capacity he took issue with those who condemned Senator Harding for the latter's league of nations stand.

Governor Coolidge declared the United States is determined to do its part in the building of civilization altho he said to one could predict what sort of association should result from America's leadership.

The Coolidge parade which included both men and women began shortly after 6 o'clock. Forming in Broadway with the head of the column in the heart of the wholesale mercantile section, and its tail at the battery, the procession, illuminated by thousands of electric lights, arrived by the famous street increasing in size as it progressed on its way. At the head of the procession immediately behind a cordon of mounted police, the words "America First" and "Harding and Coolidge" were blazoned on a huge electric sign forming an arch from curb to curb. This sign brilliant in red and white lights, and borne upon an automobile truck bedecked with the national colors preceded one of the thirty or more bands in line which had the place of honor immediately before the governor's automobile.

Following the Carnegie Hall address Republicans of the city tendered Governor Coolidge a reception of the Union League club.

BEVERAGES LABELLED "BOTTLE IN BOND"

Counterfeiting of Internal Revenue Stamps Enables Bootleggers to Label Their Goods.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Widespread counterfeiting of internal revenue stamps in connection with violation of prohibition laws was disclosed tonight when the bureau of internal revenue issued a warning against "bootleg in bond" whiskey. The country long has been flooded, Commissioner Williams said with beverages, labelled "bottle in bond" which bore spurious tax stamps.

Mr. Williams said that the fact that the bottles bore the tax stamp was no guarantee that the liquor did not contain wood alcohol or some other injurious substance to endow it with the "kick" of whiskey manufactured under government inspection.

Quantities of whiskey bearing names of well known brands but which was described after chemical analysis as "being largely prune juice, water and sugar" has been taken in raids.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The Central Executive Council of the Master Barbers' Association, representing 2,700 barbers in the city today decided upon a rise to $1 for a haircut and 35 cents for a shave to become effective Jan. 1.

GOVERNOR COX SAYS NOBODY WANTS HARDING

Partisan Politics is the Cause of His Support

HOOSIERS STAGE BIG RALLY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—Arguments addressed particularly to women voters favoring Senator Harding, Republican presidential candidate upon the broad general ground of desiring a change in national affairs, were emphasized here tonight by Governor Cox of Ohio, the Democratic presidential nominee.

To a large audience in Tomlinson hall and in a formal statement, Governor Cox fired a broadside of questions to the American people attacking Senator Harding and other Republican leaders for their league of nations, legislative and political records.

Nobody Wants Harding
"Republicans when they are honest," Governor Cox declared, "have acknowledged what is patent to everyone—and that is no one really wants Senator Harding for president. Yet they tell me that as partisans many expected to vote for him because they have been taught to believe that they 'wanted a change.'"

"The expression was preached as propaganda by reactionary leaders until it has become nauseating to the public."

Governor Cox's visit here was the occasion for a great rally of Hoosier Democracy. A parade, with fireworks, torchlights and bands, was staged and the governor spoke to an overflow meeting outside of the hall. Hundreds of persons including many clubs, marched in the parade. The governor arrived here at 5:30 to night from Dayton, Ohio, where he spent the day resting and where he issued a second statement attacking the Saturday Evening Post, naming charges of unfair partisanship.

HUGHES CENTERS HIS ATTACK ON ARTICLE X

He Also Attacked the Wilson Administration and Says Government has Been Autocratic.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 28.—Centering his attack on Article X of the covenant of the league of nations, Charles E. Hughes in a speech here tonight declared that "upon this issue, which the Democratic party has presented the Democratic party has been beaten."

Mr. Hughes also attacked the Wilson administration saying "there is a deep conviction that our national interests and prestige have been sacrificed to 'obstinacy and self-will.'"

He declared that with the exception of Russia, the American government has been the most autocratic in the western world.

"The administration," he continued, "has been intolerant of independent advice, it has demanded subservience and put incompetence in high places. Inefficiency in some of the most important departments has been matched by failure of statemanship at the seat of authority."

BODY OF MACSWINEY BOUND FOR CORK

HOLY HEAD, Wales, Oct. 28.—(By The Associated Press.)—Relatives of the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney resisted when the authorities started to place the body of the lord mayor on board a boat bound for Cork. After a fight over the coffin, however, the body was taken aboard the vessel, which sailed for Cork.

The reason assigned by the government for not permitting the body to be landed anywhere except in the lord mayor's native city was "the risk of political demonstrations which might result in the loss of innocent lives."

LABOR LEADERS AND FARMERS CONFER ON MARKET CONDITIONS

Federal Board Statement is Not Satisfactory

SUGGEST BILLION DOLLAR LOAN TO GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Labor leaders participated today with representatives of farmers from over the country in a conference devising ways and means of obtaining credits for "the orderly marketing" of farm products. Failure to secure such credits speakers declared might result in the inauguration of a general crop holding movement until market prices would provide cost of production and a reasonable profit.

A general committee to draw up a policy to be followed by the conference was appointed with John Fromble, of Kansas, as chairman and all the leading agricultural interests represented. It went to executive session immediately.

Further conferences might be sought with the treasury department and the federal reserve board it was said and congress asked for relief if it could not be obtained otherwise.

Statement Unsatisfactory
The conference met on call of the committee appointed by a recent similar gathering to receive the answer of the federal reserve board to the plea for more credits. The statement of the board was declared by this committee to be unsatisfactory.

A loan of a billion dollars by the United States to Germany was one plan laid before the policy committee. William W. Brauer of New York, who asserted that he represented the German government, advised the committee to endorse legislation by congress authorizing such a loan to Germany. Germany was ready to purchase 200,000,000 dollars of agricultural products immediately on such an extension of credit.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor and William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists promised their co-operation with the farmers in addresses. Mr. Johnston declared Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers had authorized him to give his support to the effort to secure credits for the orderly crop marketing.

LANDERS GETS FOUR YEARS IMPRISONMENT

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Judgment was rendered today convicting Henri Landru on the charge of swindling and of being a habitual criminal, and he was sentenced to four years imprisonment and subsequent deportation.

The prosecutor announced that Landru might not be tried on the of the disappearance of eleven women to whom he was said to have promised marriage. This will be decided shortly.

Since his arrest two years ago Landru has been alluded to as a modern "bluebeard."

When Landru was arraigned a week ago on swindling charges which grew out of his venture in the automobile and garage business in 1913, the opinion was expressed by officials that the state would drop its charges of murder if it secured conviction on the lesser charges.

It was said his deportation probably would be to Noumea or Devil's Island.

F. H. Collier, one of the well-known paragraphers, has coined the phrase, "Re-enforced poison," as descriptive of much of the liquor that the average bootlegger deals in.

"Little Barbour" has impressed Jacksonville men with his knowledge of the show business and his business fairness. "The big book" is also something of a weather prophet, as several days before the action was taken he advised the local committee to abandon the firemen's circus plans because of unfavorable weather conditions.

PERHAPS IT CAN BE DONE
The farmers of western states who are holding their wheat for $3 and parading the country roads to make certain that there are no defections from their ranks, have undertaken a big task. It is not surprising that they want more for their wheat than the present market conditions afford when the costs of production this year are taken into account. Their task of fixing a price would be much easier if this were the only, or the greatest wheat producing country in the world.

But vast acreages elsewhere must be taken into account, and the production of the United States does not fix the price in world markets. A corner in wheat, either by producers or speculators, cannot be successfully conducted without considering the world supply and without taking into account the unalterable law of supply and demand.

MR. SHAW FOR CONGRESSMAN

Guy L. Shaw of Beardstown, Republican candidate for congress in this district, is actively engaged in canvassing work. Mr. Shaw has addressed few public gatherings but so far as possible has met voters thruout the district. Ordinarily the twentieth is listed as a strongly Democratic district, but this year with a Republican landslide in prospect there is a fine chance for a Republican congressman.

If precedents are destroyed and the Republican nominee elected, the district will have the services of a high class man. Mr. Shaw, who is interested in extensive farming operations in Cass county, is well and favorably known there. He has shown efficiency and earnestness as a member of the constitutional convention.

FITTING THE FEE TO THE TASK

A St. Louis attorney who appeared for liquor dealers and succeeded in having an injunction proceeding set aside, whereby they were enabled to continue the sale of beer for a nine months' period, is suing for a fee of $100,000. The liquor men think this charge excessive and have refused payment.

The attorney says that the action he took permitted the liquor men to make earnings of more than $1,000,000 and so he counts his fee as reasonable. A jury, wet or dry, would likely take the same view of the matter.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

Even those citizens who had some reluctance about seeing the soldiers' monument erected in Central park, now admit that they were wrong. There was always a feeling of interest in the soldiers and a desire to honor them, but some citizens had the thought that the erection of a monument in the park would give something of a cemetery effect to the public square.

Now, as the monument nears completion they find that this is not true and that the beautiful pile of granite and bronze is not only an honor to the heroic dead but is a distinct ornament to Central park.

DOESN'T CLAIM SURPASSING WISDOM

One of the many fine things said about Senator Harding is in a recent editorial in The Chicago Daily News, an independent newspaper. This somewhat lengthy editorial in one paragraph says: "Senator Harding lays no claim to wisdom surpassing that of all others. He has expressed his wish to proceed with governmental affairs with the advice and counsel of experienced men."

Ordinarily such a statement would not carry the meaning and force that these sentences imply, but undoubtedly the editorial writer had in mind the conduct and administration of President Wilson, the one-man type of government that has prevailed in this country during recent years. Even many men who have been admirers of the president admit that one of his great weaknesses has been the unwillingness to counsel with others—the seeming desire to carry all the responsibility of government himself.

Rippling Rhymes
By Wait Mason

The Idol
Once I was a public idol, for a fortnight and a day; like a bridegroom to the bride I went on my gorgeous way, and fair maidens went before me, strewn flowers along the road, and a halo hovered o'er me when I sat in my abode. But the idols always stumble, being fixed with feet of clay, and, forgetting to be humble, I threw public love away. On the ninth day of October roses hit me, in my walks; on the tenth the people, sober, handed me a bunch of rocks. For the wealth of adulation made me feel I was a king, made me think in all the nation I was sure the biggest thing. And in every place I landed I was swollen up with pride, and my dome of thought expanded till my hat split up the side. And the people got the wildest, no more eratic, changeful hicks, and they passed me no more lilies, but bombarded me with bricks. If again I am an idol I'll be wiser, I allow; and no cheap, inflated pride'll strip the laurels from my brow. For the idols would tumble, they'd be cherished to the end, if they'd just be meek and humble as adown the world they wend.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Editor Journal:
If the people of this day and age want to be cursed by their children and their children's children, just let them help to ratify the League of Nations. The great argument of the day is that all orders or declarations of the league would be safe because they would have to be passed by congress. But what would happen to the American nation if congress rejected it?

Some say that there would be a year of arbitration and that it would be easy to settle it in that length of time. All right, and again what would come to the American nation during that year of arbitration? I believe there would be one of the worst money panics that the United States has ever had in its history. Why? Because the people of America would not know what would happen at the end of that year. That would cause a standstill in all industries and that standstill in all industries would cause prices to drop and prices going to smash would cause the majority of the laboring class to be without employment.

All this would happen during the year of arbitration. Now we will see what happens: Congress will see that all the other nations of the league are against us and the only thing they can do is to pass that order, or to dissolve partnership with the league, which would take them two years to do. If they did not pass it, the other nations of the league would send their armies over here and compel them to do it. And again, if some other nation of the league had an order and they rejected it, then the consul of the league would call on us to send our army over there to compel them to obey the order. Does this look well to you?

Does it seem right that we should take orders from other nations, this free country of America, and does it seem right for us to send our boys over there to compel other nations to obey an order of the League of Nations? It does not seem right to me, and I hope it never comes to pass.

Let us bear in mind the story of old, when the Israelites spent four hundred years in bondage to the Egyptians. Let us consider what our great grandchildren will think of us before we act.

MARGERY MAXWELL RECITAL TONIGHT

Margery Maxwell, prima donna soprano of the Chicago Opera company, who gives the opening recital of the Illinois Woman's college artist series, in Music hall on Friday evening, the 29th, is a whole-hearted American girl with a voice of surpassing beauty—a pure, ideal, lyric soprano. ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE RECOMMENDATIONS

F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, under date of Oct. 28, issued a letter relative to the coming campaign in Illinois. His statements with reference to J. Ham Lewis, the Democratic nominee, and Len Small, Republican nominee, are as follows:

Mr. Lewis, the Democratic nominee, has served in the United States senate for six years, from 1913 to 1919 inclusive. The prohibition cause has been a live issue in congress all this time. Mr. Lewis voted against every dry bill in the senate and for every wet bill during his service. He has given no evidence of any change as to his attitude. He carried the liquor endorsement for re-election.

The governor of the state is a power in the legislature. We should not forget how the residence district bill was killed in 1913. We are certain that the best interests of the cause will be served by actively supporting Mr. Small as against the other two candidates. Recommendations for other offices are given in other communications.

ENTERTAINED WESTMINSTER GUILD

Westminster guild was entertained by Miss Katherine Barr Thursday afternoon at her home on West State street. Members of the guild had the pleasure of listening to two talks, one by Miss Margaret Moore and another by Miss Anne Stevenson. Expertness in her voyage overseas to carry on Y. W. C. A. work formed the basis of Miss Moore's remarks, and Miss Stevenson told something of her work in occupational therapy in Washington, D. C. both the young women having much of interest to relate.

Miss Ainslie Moore added to the pleasure of the afternoon with a group of songs: "Down Vauxhall Way" and "The Nightingale at Lincoln's Inn," by Herbert Oliver, and "When I Was One and Twenty," by Dodson. Miss Moore was accompanied by Miss Mehus of the Woman's college. The hostess served refreshments.

Boudoir talks with Sybel on how cocoa butter reduces enlarged pores

Enlarged pores are a terrible bug-bear. They ruin the appearance of any complexion. I thought they were one of those unfortunate disfigurements acquired with years but Sybel tells me I am mistaken.

"Enlarged pores are more often caused by the use of injurious facial creams, dear girl, than by the fault of time. Some bleaching creams contain an acid which works havoc with the skin. If the purpose of a washing cream is to keep the skin clear, while the particular ingredient which accomplishes this is not necessarily impure or harmful, if used occasionally by constant application, may ruin the skin. The pores become clogged and in time the muscles become so weakened they refuse to close.

"Face and popular fancies should not enter into your choice of a facial cream. Your cream should nourish, as well as cleanse.

"Everyone knows cocoa butter is a remarkably fine skin food. Coco-Bloom—my cocoa butter cream—has all the virtues of the cocoa butter it contains, combined with other ingredients that benefit the skin. Daily use of Coco-Bloom nourishes the little muscles of the pores so that they can do their work properly. You first use steaming hot towels to expand the pores. After massaging the face briefly for five minutes with Coco-Bloom, apply hot and cold towels, followed by witch hazel. Gradually the pores will decrease in size and become less conspicuous.

"Remember, Coco-Bloom is extra butter cream, and it supplies exactly what is needed to make your skin healthy."

A. L. RODEMS AND MISS JENKINS MARRIED

Impressive Ceremony Performed Thursday Morning at The Church of Our Savior.

The marriage of Alfred L. Rodems and Miss Lucile M. Jenkins was solemnized at 7:45 o'clock Thursday morning at the Church of Our Savior. The bride couple was attended by Miss Edith Rodems, sister of the groom, and George Overbeck. The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of white organdy and wore a white bridal veil. Among the out of town guests in attendance were: Mrs. F. A. Jenkins of Palmyra; Mrs. Harry Wallace, of Nilwood; Miss Estelle Schell of Girard; Miss Letha Young and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scanlan, all of Springfield. Immediately following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Jenkins, 134 Howe street. The house was prettily decorated in old-fashioned flowers, roses, cosmos, chrysanthemums and dahlias. The bride's cake was angel food and was baked and brought from Palmyra by Mrs. F. A. Jenkins. At the breakfast the bride used a silver spoon which was used by her grandmother at her wedding in England over sixty years ago. Following the wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for a brief wedding trip, after which they expect to take up their residence at 134 Howe street. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rodems, 853 East State street. He is well known in Jacksonville and is popular among his many friends. He is a member of the firm and manager of the Jacksonville Machine and Boiler Works, circle of friends and their best. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Jenkins. She has not been long a resident of this city, having come here with her mother from Girard a little more than a year ago. However, during her short stay here she has made many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Rodems have the hearty congratulations of their wide circle of friends and their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

- 1914—Illinois 20, Wesleyan 17.
- 1915—Illinois 21, Wesleyan 3.
- 1916—Illinois 21, Wesleyan 11.

The game will be called at 3:15 o'clock. Benjamin, of Illinois Normal, Lantz of Eastern Normal and Russell, Illinois Normal, are scheduled for officials.

W. F. M. S. of Alexander Church Meets

Mrs. J. E. Erickson was hostess to members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Alexander M. E. church Thursday afternoon at her home east of Alexander. Mrs. C. H. Beerup was the leader of the afternoon and the subject was "The Aims and Goals for the Year; Why An Evangelistic Campaign." The mystery box was in charge of Mrs. Anna Beerup. The program included some instrumental selections by Mrs. Lester Gray and two vocal numbers by Miss Harriet Erickson.

A social hour came after the program and at this time the hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held on Nov. 4, with Mrs. Anna Beerup.

Springfield, Ill.—Children at the Home for the Friendless have been having a great time testing out their new swings, saw-saws, merry-go-rounds and other apparatus of play. The youngsters have had fresh occasion to realize they are not friendless. Some 150 of their best friends gave up their well-won halfholiday on a recent Saturday to renovate their living quarters and incidentally constructed all their new playthings. They were workmen engaged in putting up a new bank building here.

DR. VIOLETTE SHOWS FAITH FUNDAMENTAL

Evangelist at Christian Church Delivered Great Message on "Belief" in the Bible

A great audience filled the auditorium of the Central Christian church last night to hear Dr. E. E. Violette on "Why I Believe the Bible." Reading the fifty-fifth chapter of Isaiah from memory, according to his usual method, he held his audience in rapt attention for the whole hour of his unique and convincing discourse.

The interest in the preaching of Dr. Violette is increasing with each new day of his stay in his old home country. Now that the weather has cleared and the roads become passable, the people of the country are attending in great numbers. It is predicted that the building will not accommodate the crowds during the coming week. The meeting is growing into a nightly home-coming for Dr. Violette. He is greeted at the close of every sermon by former schoolmates and playmates of his boyhood, and the whole spirit of the work he is doing augurs well for the future of the churches of the city and community, for the character of Dr. Violette's work is devoid of anything that smacks of sectarianism. His preaching will redeem evangelism as well as souls in the community. People of all churches like the brand of religion he is preaching.

Faith is Fundamental

The sermon last night was in some respects the most interesting of his messages to date. He approached the subject from the standpoint that faith is fundamental in every walk of life. "Doubt never builds railroads, steamships, schools, universities; doubt never paints pictures; never composes music; never helps the needy. The doubter is damned in any walk of life. Therefore, how much more is he condemned who does not believe and live in the atmosphere of faith in God.

"That the Bible is the best book of religion in the world, no scholar ever denied; that Christianity is the highest and purest form of religion in the world, all scholars admit. Therefore, the religious destinies of all mankind must be decided by the teaching of the Bible and the Christianity of Christ. The nations are rapidly approaching a point in history when further progress will be impossible without the acceptance of the program of Christ."

Themes Announced

Dr. Violette announced the following lessons and sermons for future services:

Tonight, Matt. 16. Subject: "Why I Believe in Christ."

Sunday morning, Acts 5. Subject: "The Unchanging Christ."

Monday night, Daniel 5. Subject: "A Night in Babylon."

Tuesday night, Rev. 7. Subject: "The Unpardonable Sin."

Wednesday night, Rev. 7. Subject: "The First Five Minutes After Death."

There will be no Saturday night meeting, as that is used as a rest night for the workers.

HISTORIC VOLUME IN ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Springfield, Ill.—The historic volume of Blackstone's Commentaries from which Abraham Lincoln first studied law may find a final resting place, incased in glass, in the office of Attorney General Brundage.

The book shows the results of a bath it received when Lincoln, while returning home dropped it in a stream, when he stumbled on a cross log. He borrowed the volume from Judge Pitcher and it is said, weeded the Judge's garden to make restitution for the damage done.

At present the book is the property of Leroy M. Wade, of Vincennes, Indiana. He has signified his willingness to have it placed in the office of the attorney general of Illinois.

GOLF ASSOCIATION ADOPTS NEW RULES

A Ball on the Green May be Lifted, Cleaned and Then Replaced Without Penalty.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Directors of the Western Golf association have adopted general rules on the cleaning of golf balls, on putting greens, the playing of a ball from an extreme green and for the lifting of a ball embedded in mud, it was announced today by Assistant Secretary Crafts W. Higgins. The directors also retained the Western association stymie rule, but voted to adopt the new rules of the United States Golf association regarding a lost ball, a ball out of bounds and unplayable lie.

These new rules of the U. S. G. A. provide for loss of a stroke in medal and the hole in match play for the unplayable lie. A lost ball penalty was the same as now.

The new Western Association rules are:

When a ball is at rest on the putting green, if there be mud or other substance adhering to the ball, it may be lifted, cleaned and then replaced without penalty, provided such act be done with the knowledge of an opponent or another competitor.

A ball embedded in soft mud except in a recognized water hazard shall be deemed to be in casual water.

(In such a case it may be lifted without penalty and dropped not nearer the hole.)

If the ball be played on to a putting green other than that of the hole being played the ball shall be lifted and placed off such green near as possible to the place where the ball lay, but not nearer the hole without penalty.

Johannesburg, South Africa.—(By The A. P.)—The authorities of Lorenzo Marquez, Portuguese East Africa, have given warning to striking railway men in that province that if they attempt to dynamite trains, as threatened the ringleaders will be bound with ropes and put on a truck in front of locomotives, says the Central News.

Lorenzo Marquez has been almost cut off from communication with the hinterland for several days owing to the strike. Martial law has been proclaimed and the railway bridge, which is composed of ordinary railway workers, has been ordered out for service. It is reported however, that the majority of the men ignored this order. Work at the port has been at a standstill.

KAISER STILL STICKS TO COUNTRY

AMERONGEN.—(By the Associated Press.)—The "Made in Germany" sign is still a fetish to the former German emperor. Though he is reported to feel that his country treated him shamefully, nevertheless he continues to buy for himself and his little court at Doorn Gorman goods, sent direct from Berlin when possible, notwithstanding the fact that he has been in Holland nearly two years. This was most recently demonstrated when, in furnishing the little hospital William has had built here as a memorial of his stay in Amerongen, he had practically every stick of furniture and other equipment sent from Berlin.

In revenge, it is said here, Dutch tradesmen with whom the exile had to deal at Doorn, and also the workmen whom he has to engage from time to time, charge him all that the traffic will bear.

PROBATION OFFICERS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Meeting of Great Interest Held Here Yesterday—Judge H. P. Samuel One of Speakers.

Although there are so many counter attractions and the interest in election so great, the State Probation Officers' association conference was well attended yesterday morning at the circuit court room.

Miss Mary Polmeteer of Waukegan presided and called on Herbert Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools, to give the address of welcome which the gentleman did in a very felicitous manner bidding the visitors welcome to all the good things the city possesses and paying a just tribute to the importance of their work.

Judge Samuel was the first speaker. His address was excellent and to the point. A few thoughts are presented. People have little idea of the importance of the work. There should be a very general propaganda keeping before the people the great need of the work and its vast importance.

The word officer is unfortunate. People have an aversion to having their homes entered by a public official. Welfare worker would be a better title. Great care should be taken to get both sides of every story brought before the juvenile court. Too often erroneous decisions may be made from hasty conclusions.

At another time a large family of children had trifling parents. Three boys were sent to St. Charles and the parents later asked us to take all the rest, which we did. Judge Henshaw of Greene county. The gentleman said, coming as he did from God's country, an agricultural commonwealth, they had less work of this kind to do. They had one probation officer for boys and one for girls. Great care should be exercised in choosing a probation officer. She should have a love for children, tact in managing them and the parents.

Law and Common Sense
The probation law is a good one but laws are not self-enforcing. Much common sense is needed. Years ago before a probation law existed a boy was brought before a judge for a misdemeanor which he had committed. He was undoubtedly guilty but the judge didn't send him to jail, but gave him another chance and the boy made a fine success in life. Good homes are best for children and if effort is made they can be found instead of institutions.

Judge Reck of LaSalle county said the probation officer should pay special attention to preventing juvenile delinquency. It is well to call on the families of the poorer classes and encourage them to do better, to adopt more economical ways and exercise better judgment, intelligence and morality would prevent a vast amount of delinquency in our country.

E. E. McLaughlin, superintendent of schools at Anna, made an excellent address. The school teacher can do much to aid in the delinquent work but not all children fail to do well at school who investigation shows they are inadequately fed and poorly clothed. There is a great gulf between the parents of the poorer children and the well-to-do. All classes need to assist. The schools can't do it all; nor can the social service workers do it all, but with co-operation on the part of all much may be accomplished. The great question is how to gain the confidence of the ones we want to reach. When I investigated the question in my city I found the Holy Rollers were the only class. Even the Salvation Army was unable in this case.

For the welfare of the children, we need:
That they be well born.
That they have playgrounds and means of wholesome amusement.
Their morals protected.

Education destroys or bridges over that wide gulf which keeps the various classes of society so far apart; a proposition far easier made than solved. I think women are the best for assistants in the juvenile court for they can best get at the hearts of the people; can go into homes and give good advice and help many domestic questions. Lift up and elevate the homes. All honor to the Salvation Army for what it has done, for it gets right down to the work—not doing it at arm's length.

GUY L. SHAW TALKS TO EX-SERVICE MEN

Beardstown Man Tells Them of
His Idea of Soldier Bonus—
Mr. Dunn Also Talks of Vocational Training.

Harrison A. Dickson Post, No. 503, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held a fine meeting Thursday evening with a good attendance of members.

Guy L. Shaw of Beardstown, candidate for congress on the Republican ticket from the Twelfth district, was present and talked to the men. Mr. Shaw gave his views on the soldier bonus bill. He said he favored a liberal cash plan, also a loan by the government for the purchase of homes by soldiers.

Mr. Dunn, who is here representing the government in the vocational training plan for ex-service men, gave the most interesting talk on the work. He gave them much information as to how to get this service from the government.

The new charter of the post has been received and the post exhibited last night. It is a beautiful piece of work.

Announcement was made of a public dance to be given by the post on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 25, in Knights of Columbus hall. Quite a number of tickets were disposed of and indications point to a large crowd.

The members of the Service Star Legion will be hostesses on that occasion and will have charge of the refreshments. The funds secured from the refreshments will be used to purchase trees for the Victory Drive. The members of the post are doing everything possible to make the exercises planned for Armistice Day a success.

CRIME PREVENTION IS BIG PURPOSE

Judge Arnold of Cook County Juvenile Court Heard In Strong Address at Baptist Church.

Judge Victor P. Arnold of Cook county told a large audience at the Baptist church last night something about the problems and the work of the juvenile court in Chicago, based upon his own experiences. Judge Arnold has been judge of the Cook county juvenile court for five years, passing upon cases of delinquency, dependency and neglect. Other cases have also come under his jurisdiction as the authority conferred by the juvenile court law is wide.

Judge Reek of La Salle county was the presiding officer last night at the session of the state probation officers' association. The program opened with two numbers, well sung, by the semi-chorus of the high school. Following Judge Arnold's address Mr. Herbert Harley, secretary of the American Judicature society, discussed the question of "Segregation vs. Capital Punishment."

The Important Question
Judge Arnold said that protection to the child is one of the most important matters that comes before the courts of this or any other state. The authority given under the juvenile court law is wide and the laws quite definitely fix the powers of the court. The doubt, if any, is in favor of the child. The judge went on to say that he did not hesitate to take control of a child where there is no hope of improvement in the home surroundings, resulting from immorality, depravity or cruelty. However, the child is not taken until there has been thorough investigation and the belief exists that this is the only course to pursue in order to bring about the desired betterment. The same principle is applied if the child is accused as incorrigible. So it happens that in very many cases where neglect or cruelty is shown on the part of parents, that a period of probation is the best course and a like statement applies to delinquent children.

Prevention the Aim
The records of Cook county juvenile court will show five times as many cases given the necessary attention out of court as there are wherein definite court action is taken. The fact is special emphasis is laid upon prevention and the effort is to prevent and correct and improve, not to punish.

Judge Arnold related several instances to indicate the conflict which sometimes occurs between juvenile courts and other courts and said that complete jurisdiction should be given the juvenile courts if they are to accomplish the best results.

Mr. Harley discussed in a somewhat technical way the question of crime and its punishment, together with the effect that is obtained thru capital punishment.

Forty Three Head of Cattle Brought Over $8,000

TOP PRICE FOR COW WAS $500

Forty-three head of pure-bred registered Guernsey's, comprising the herd of the late Arthur L. French, were sold Thursday by the Farmers' State Bank & Trust company, as executor, at the French farm at Chapin.

One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at a sale in Morgan county was present, despite unfavorable weather and road conditions. The prices prevailing for the Guernsey herd were most satisfactory. F. J. Heintz of the Farmers' State Bank & Trust company said, in talking with a Journal reporter Thursday evening.

The herd contained many heifers and bull calves and ranged in age from 12 days to nine years. The herd brought a total of $8,786 and averaged over $200 per head. HUMANE SOCIETY GAVE CHICKEN PIE SUPPER

Large Number Served at Central Christian Church Thursday Evening—Work of Society Explained in Brief Way.

The chicken pie supper given for the benefit of the Humane society at Central Christian church Thursday evening proved to be a success from every standpoint. The committee in charge of the sale of tickets had been active during recent days and more than 400 tickets were disposed of. At 5:30 o'clock, the hour announced for the serving to begin, a large crowd was in waiting at the church and from that hour until 7:30 o'clock the large corps of waiters was kept exceedingly busy.

The supper was served by the Pastoral Helpers of the church and in every detail their work was well done. The tables were decorated with fall flowers and presented a very handsome appearance.

W. A. Jenkinson, president of the local Humane society, presided.

ed and grace was said by Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State street Presbyterian church. Afterward Rev. W. E. Collins, pastor of the Congregational church, was called upon for a brief message of the work for the Humane society is doing.

The speaker said that the members of the society are constantly on the lookout for instances of cruelty to animals and frequently call attention of drivers and owners of horses to thoughtless and heartless treatment. Among matters frequently called to the attention of drivers is the need of blanketing horses when they are left standing in the cold, seeing that they are well shod and given the proper care when their shoulders become sore from the rubbing of harness.

Property owners are frequently called upon to improve the approaches to their homes so that teams hauling coal will not have such hard pulls. Seeing that cinders are placed in muddy places in the road is another duty of the Humane society. Mr. Collins also referred to the co-operation of Humane society. Mr. Collins also referred to the co-operation of Humane society. Mr. Collins also referred to the co-operation of Humane society.

Again the perpetual complaint comes regarding the stretch of road immediately south of the limits of South Jacksonville. WOMEN WORK FOR NEW CHURCH BUILDING

Taylorville, Ill. — Forty thousand second hand brick and a quantity of sand have been gathered together by a small group of women at Tovey, a village ten miles west of here, for the construction of a Methodist church. The women cleaned the bricks themselves, devoting a part of each of their mornings until the work was done. The obtained the sand from the railroad track where it had escaped from boxcars.

This determination to have a church building in their own town has gained official recognition and promises of help from the Methodist Centenary fund. The Rev. Eugene M. Antrim, of Springfield, district superintendent of the church, has rewarded the women by organizing a church for them of eighteen charter members.

The Rev. Harold Hartmann, pastor of Kincaid M. E. church, has been assigned to this "church-less" church and Mrs. Amelia Hill, of Tovey, has been recognized as chairman of the women's committee.

DISAPPOINTED MANY TIMES BUT AT LAST FOUND WHAT HE SOUGHT

Eloomington Citizen Suffered Seven Years from Kidney Trouble—Up Five or Six Times Every Night—Liver Lazy, Bowels Constipated.

Declares the Root and Herb Remedy Dreo, Quickly Relieved Him.

"For seven years I've been troubled with my kidneys, which gave me an awful backache, called me up during the night and almost laid me off my job," states Mr. E. S. Squires, 101 East Front street, Bloomington, Ill.

"My liver was sluggish and often brought on dizzy spells and dark spots floated before my eyes. My bowels were bound up so that I had to take medicine constantly to keep them moving."

"I had catarrh of the head and throat so bad I couldn't sleep well, my breathing was hard and of mornings I'd be stopped up and it would take a couple of hours to get my head cleared up.

"I've tried lots of medicine, in fact only recently I bought six bottles of one kind, have taken five of them and the other one I at home, never opened, but I did me no good. Somehow I believed in Dreo when I first read of it for I know root and herb medicine is the best for anyone to take."

"Dreo did not disappoint me like others have done. Dreo seemed to go to the bottom and work out. My bowels became regular, dizziness passed off, backache gone and I never have to get up during the night any more. The catarrh is much better so that I sleep sound and my head is clear of mornings. Dreo is one grand remedy and I strongly urge any person suffering with my troubles to get this medicine at once."

All druggists now sell Dreo and it is being especially introduced in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co.—Adv.

INVESTIGATEJohn M. DoyleElectrical Contractor
217 So. Main, Ill. Phone 1618The Hard Wheat Crop Is 4% Quality and 96% Quantity

The hard winter wheat crop this year was heralded as a prize-winner. It looked fine—there was lots of it—but it was woefully lacking in quality.

Most of the grain outgrew its strength. A hot sun and too much moisture filled it out with starch and water before strength-giving gluten could develop. It is weak and capable of producing only ordinary flour.

The wheat we need for Enterprise Flour must be solid and full of gluten. It's scarce and hard to find, for it grew only on the few scattered spots where there wasn't so much moisture. Of the whole crop only four per cent was wheat of this kind.

Because of its scarcity we had to pay the highest premium we have ever paid for every bushel of this quality wheat that we bought. But we had to have it—and we got it.

Enterprise will cost more this year, but you can absolutely depend on its quality. It will give you the same fine results that it always has in the past. The economy of paying for quality in flour has never been so apparent as it will be this year.

MAYFLOWER CREW IS SHIPWRECKED

However, It Was Only a Stage Crew Playing in "The Mayflower" in London.

London—Twenty-first Century Pilgrim Fathers have hardships of their own. Last night while Ben Greet players were lustily singing from the poop deck of a stage reproduction of the Mayflower at the Surrey theater, stage properties gave way, the ship heeled, crashed toward the audience and precipitated the hapless Pilgrims to the stage amid sails, masts and splintered woodwork.

After anxious moments it was determined that no broken bones had resulted from the unhistorical production. This assured, the notable gathering of first nighters, including American diplomatic officials and influential Anglo-Americans, were prepared for the humor of the situation rise of the curtain on the second act—the Pilgrim Fathers offering thanks for their safe voyage across the Atlantic. London critics say the audience could hardly be blamed for bursting into laughter.

The production of "The Mayflower," a play which is a part of the tercentenary celebration in London, according to The Times shows once again how difficult it is for a play of this kind to be anything but a series of episodes very loosely strung together. "Abraham Lincoln" was, of course the exception. There is no drama in the The Mayflower play, says The Times and very little humor, and the whole thing consists of a series of scenes laid in Leyden, at Plymouth and New England. The Chronicle calls the play a crude melodrama, the love story which threads it having been taken almost line for line from Longfellow's Miles Standish, but arranged with hardly any dramatic skill.

ROAD BUILDERS UNEARTH HUMAN SKELETON

Springfield, Ill.—Discovery of a long forgotten cemetery was made here recently when road builders while excavating on the Clear Lake road near the city limits unearthed six skeletons.

What at first was thought to be an old Indian burying ground proved later upon investigation to be the interment spot of some of the earliest settlers in the state.

Republican Voters

EVERY good American—man or woman—owes it to his country, as a debt of honor, to vote on November 2. To fail in this is to fail in a plain duty and to shirk the obligation of citizenship.

Republicans of steadfast faith, Independents who would rescue America from Democratic misgovernment, Democrats who distrust their own leadership, new voters—men and women—who seek their country's best good, all can achieve their desires on election day. To do this they should—

Mark a Cross in the Republican Circle!

PARTIES are responsible for conditions in America, not persons. We depend upon a party to promote progress, remedy evils and give efficiency in the public service. Persons can do neither. A vote for a party is a vote that will count. A vote for a person is a wasted vote.

In Tuesday's election the issue is one between a party and a person—between Republicanism and Wilsonism. Every vote cast for any Republican candidate will be an endorsement of Republican principles. Every vote cast against any Republican candidate will be an endorsement of Wilson policies and practices.

Republican principles mean the maintenance of American independence; protection of American labor, husbandry and industry; economy in the expenditure of public money; reduced taxes; efficiency in the public service in nation, state and county; stability of American institutions and consequent prosperity and progress.

Wilson policies and practices have been for surrender of American independence to a super-state League of Nations; free trade and protection of profiteering; extravagance and waste in spending the people's money and high taxes; caring for "deserving Democrats" in the public service; social, commercial and industrial unrest.

Lincoln, greatest of Republicans, said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." Team work gets the best results. Harmony between the executive and the legislative branches of government in both state and nation is essential to real achievement. To vote the straight Republican ticket is to vote for harmony and team work in the public service. To "scratch" a ballot is to endorse turmoil and inefficiency.

Women of Illinois have attained full citizenship. The Republican party was the chief instrument in giving it to them. With men just come of age they are "first voters." For all these the "scratched" ballot has fatal pit-falls. The one sure way, and the easiest, to make their first full vote count is to mark a cross in the Republican party circle.

For a new deal at Washington; for harmony and continued efficiency in state government; for the success of Republican principles, take no chances.

Republican men and women, voters of all faiths opposed to Wilson, to accomplish this, vote on Tuesday, Nov. 2, and—

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The College has been especially favored with distinguished visitors in the last few days. Dr. Eugene M. Antrim of Springfield, Illinois, was at chapel Tuesday morning and made an interesting and inspiring address. Dr. Charles E. Guthrie, general secretary of the board of Epworth Leagues of the Methodist Episcopal Church, visited the college on Wednesday morning, and Dr. George H. McClung, pastor of the church at Kankakee, Illinois, was also a visitor. Miss Annie Hinrichsen, of the Department of Public Welfare of the state of Illinois was at chapel Wednesday morning, and made a very interesting address. She told of the opportunities for women in public welfare and explained very fully the program and purposes of the Public Welfare Convention in session in Jacksonville. The college is especially preparing women for this kind of work. Miss Hinrichsen, of the class of '97, Miss Grace Hasenstab of the class of '19, and Miss Gladys Goodale, of the class of '20, are doing very efficient work in the department and many of the students are definitely preparing themselves for special community and church betterment work.

Word has just come to the college of the death of Miss Mary Pegram, a graduate of the class of 1864. Miss Pegram has been in poor health for several years; a little while ago she fell and fractured her hip, which resulted in her death. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock in Lincoln, Illinois. Miss Pegram had the record of being a very talented and able student. Immediately after her graduation in '64 she became a teacher of Mathematics in the school and for many years exerted a very helpful influence on the lives of hundreds of young women. For a number of years she held the responsible position of lady principal and the management of the college learned to depend on her in every way. Hundreds of women, now mothers of families and occupying responsible positions in life, testify how much they owe to the good influence of Miss Pegram, and will greatly honor and cherish her memory.

Plan now as you can, be a stock holder in a modern "Manod Factory" in Jacksonville. By the will of R. E. Burger, the Newburgh Association receives $15,000 for its endowment; Poughkeepsie $5,000, Schenectady and Glen Falls, $7,000 each. Mr. Burger had never taken an active interest in the Association.

Campaigns are scheduled at Columbia, Pensacola, Greenwood, Laurel, Chattanooga, Lexington, Portsmouth and New Orleans, while many other points are quietly "laying pipe."

At Sioux Falls, S. D., and at Aberdeen material is in hand and new buildings are projected. Sites have been allocated for Association buildings at Balboa and Cristobal on the Canal Zone for men of the Army and Navy for which plans are developing. In the meanwhile, residences for secretaries are being erected on sites assigned by the Canal Zone Commission.

Three Community Buildings and two years' operating expenses are provided by the $307,000 fund raised at Canton, O. When the goal of $220,000 was reached a surprise gift of $600,000 came, together with a lot valued at $17,000, given by the Hoover Suction Sweeper Company for a community building. In one factory 1,053 foreigners gave $15 each.

York, Pa., is about to launch an effort to secure $525,000 for a new building. Lewistown, Pa., will canvass for $100,000 to finish its structure and canvassers are soon to come at Superior, Wis., Bristol, R. I., and Newton, Mass., for debt and current expenses.

Oak Park has lately spent $25,000 or more to add new bowling alleys and boys' rooms.

Ottumwa's new concrete building is now well "poured." Finish expected January 1st. The Springfield College expansion fund now aggregates $200,000. Large entering class this year and many to take new industrial course of which F. H. Rindge is Dean.

HOUSE OF CORRECTION POPULATION DECREASES

"GIVE TO HUMANITY YOUR BEST AND THE BEST WILL COME BACK," SAYS FOLEY

Speaking to thousands of men was the self-sought war task of James W. Foley, associate editor of the Pasadena, Cal., Evening Post. So, during those months, he studied at close range human nature. From El Paso to Brownsville, Tacoma to San Diego, across and up and down the continent, he traveled, observing men as he talked to them. His conclusion is that humanity is kindly—that if you appeal to the best in a man that best will respond.

"And in that time and through that experience, in addressing every kind of human being in every branch of the fighting forces of the United States I have not had an unkind word said to me, never suffered unfriendly interruption, never saw anything but friendly and engaging smiles when I looked for them and I had audiences varying from a dozen colored troopers of the Tenth cavalry on the Mexican border at Nogales, Arizona, to four thousand white-suited jacksies on the Fourth of July in an outdoor amphitheater at Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

"I never read a thing but the simplest poems of childhood and boyhood and familyhood. I never used any but the friendliest words I could command. It was a program I have given before every class of people in the United States, from the most erudite club audiences to an audience of twenty-one hundred men in the prison at San Quentin. That was what I carried through the army, and I found not the slightest difference in the spirit of appreciation. So I know that all human beings are the same, and that men are instinctively refine, wholesome, loving, friendly and delightful. I care not what stratum of life they come from.

"And I am not afraid to appeal to the best that is in men, because the best of men is splendid, and the worst of men is frightful, and the indifference of men is hopeless."

WHAT THE SALVATION ARMY IS DOING

By Colonel F. C. Whipp, Welfare Statistician for the State of Illinois.

If there is any organization in the whole world that should be welcome to operate in the state of Illinois it is the Salvation Army.

I have been engaged in welfare work for more than 30 years in the state capitol. I have grown up with the state institutions. I have seen all classes of unfortunate. I have seen the value of Salvation Army work in our cities, and I know that this organization, which has now been perfected to reach out to all the counties of the state, will be of value to the state in the work the government is doing.

There are 24 state institutions in Illinois; 17,000 insane; 4,000 prisoners in the penitentiaries and reform schools; 1,000 boys in St. Charles; 450 girls at Geneva. The state expends for the upkeep of these institutions $7,000,000 a year; $600,000 a month; $20,000 a day; $900 an hour; $15 a minute; 25 cents a second.

Confined in the state institutions of Illinois there are now 27,000 poor unfortunate souls, many coming into the world with deficient minds and bodies, who never had a chance to fight the battles of life with those others who are more fortunate; many who had the wrong environment to start; others who lost their health; and there are still other derelicts who have slipped or fallen in their efforts to live in society.

That society has a tremendous function to perform in conserving the human waste in Illinois. We can not make over society, but the next best thing is to make what repairs we can. Illinois, with its trained experts, is turning considerable of this human waste into self-supporting citizens; and we know that the Salvation Army can help Illinois in this work. We know that they can save some of these boys and girls before they are sent to state institutions; we know that home environment is best for these boys and girls.

Tires look pretty much alike. All manner of conflicting claims have been made, regarding the quality, guarantee and cost per mile of various brands.

You can readily appreciate the difference between paying $30.00 for a tire that runs 10,000 miles as compared with paying $21.00 each for two tires that average 4,000 to 5,000 miles.

TO CONCENTRATE UPON FIVE NATIONAL ISSUES

Legislative Program Outlined by Board; Other Important Issues Are Settled.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs will concentrate its efforts on five national issues, according to the vote of the board of directors at the annual fall meeting just held in Washington, D. C. These are the Fess bill on home economics, the Smith-Towner bill for a United States department of education, the Sheppard-Towner maternity bill, the national library service bill and a bill providing for independent citizenship for married women and aliens. All five of these bills have been prepared at the urgent demand of the organized women of the country but only one succeeded in being written into the platform of either the great political parties.

Mrs. White Appointed on Legislative Council.

Mrs. Edwin Franklin White, chairman of the Legislative Department, was appointed to represent the Federation of Women's Clubs on the newly created legislative council composed of thirteen members representing the thirteen women's national associations, and which will deal with legislative questions of national importance to women.

Other matters of business transacted by the board included a discussion of departmental activities and a presentation of the proposed program of each by the several chairmen; the creation of special work for each of the two national vice-chairmen; the appropriation of funds for the coming biennial period; the selection of places of meeting for the coming council and biennial conventions and discussion of the character of each; the hearing of reports including that of officers, special and standing committees; the dissolution of the present magazine corporation; and the hearing of recommendations of the outgoing administration and the incoming executive committee.

Government Departments Extend Courtesies

Visits were made to federation headquarters, and with the courtesy of personal escorts of government representatives to the Department of Labor and of Agriculture where heads of departments outlined the activities of the newly created Women's Bureau, the Children's Bureau, and the department of home economics, as fostered and promoted from their incipency by the federated women of America.

Dr. True addressed the board members upon the work being done through the United States in boys and girls' clubs and home demonstration work and illustrated his talk with charts showing the extent of the work in the southern, northern and western states. He urged the club women of the north and west to take more interest in the establishment of the work in their respective sections and explained the working of the Smith-Lever law.

Miss Anderson, chief of the new Women's Bureau, explained the purpose of that department which was established in the interest of women in industry and made a plea to the club women to urge the inclusion of home makers, who are now listed by the census bureau as having no occupation, as industrially employed.

"The work of the American housewife in the home is estimated to have an economic value of $19,000,000,000," declared Miss Anderson. "The bureau now lists her as having no occupation. This is worse than an absurdity."

At the Children's Bureau Miss Lathrop personally conducted the party through the bureau's quarters and talked informally upon her plans for the coming year.

Dr. C. F. Langworthy, chief of home economics research; Miss F. E. Ward, in charge of women's extension work, and her corps of able assistants; and Dr. Caroline Hunt, food specialist, greeted the board and were hosts at a demonstration luncheon.

COST OF PRODUCING BEEF IN ILLINOIS

Washington, D. C. — Figures on the cost of producing beef in northern Illinois during the past two years, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture indicate that the bulk of the cattle for which figures were obtained cost their producers between $12 and $17 a hundred weight, laid down at market. Counting corn at its cash farm price, 40 per cent of the cattle showed a profit in 1918-19 and 51.2 per cent in 1919-20. Balancing what the farmers actually received against what they might have received if they had chosen to sell their corn instead of feed it, there is a presumptive average less per head ranging from $7.89 for 2,668 cattle surveyed in 1918-19, to $34.78 for 3,543 head surveyed in 1919-20. Nevertheless, some farmers, by careful feeding and especially by wise buying and selling, made profits ranging up to as high as $50 per head and over in scattering instances.

These figures were gathered by the Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics, working in cooperation with the University of Illinois and the Bureau of Animal Industry United States Department of Agriculture. The work was done in DeKalb County, 60 miles west of Chicago. During the winter of 1918-19 survey records were obtained for 72 droves (2,268 head) and during the next winter similar records for 83 droves (3,553 head) and detailed cost accounting figures for 25 droves (1,069 head).

It was found that the greater part of the cattle gained between one and two pounds per day, although the total range showed considerable variation. Cost per pound of gain which must be confused with cost of the entire animal ranged from 10 to 60 cents for the cattle covered in the 1918-19 survey, with the bulk of gains lying between 20 and 35 cents. For 1919-20 the extreme range was from 7 to 58 cents for the droves covered in the survey, and from 12 to 62 cents for those covered by the cost-accounting method. For over one-half these two groups gains ranged from 25 to 40 cents per pound.

LaSalle County Live Stock Survey

According to the recent live stock report survey of LaSalle County there were 28,450 cattle on hand on June 30, 1920. In 1919 there were 6,828 fat cattle marketed and the figures show that 7,632 may be marketed in 1920. There are 517 grade or unregistered bulls and 319 registered bulls in this county, dairy cattle totaled, 9,721.

On June 30, 1920, there were 45,611 swine in LaSalle. Of this number, 26,57 are listed to be shipped as fat hogs in 1920. More than 30,000 hogs were fattened and marketed in this county last year.

YOU don't have to use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. Because it has more than the ordinary leavening strength. You save about half on its use.

You don't have to pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price. It always has been. And that represents another saving.

You don't have to feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never falls below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

Use only half the amount usually required

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

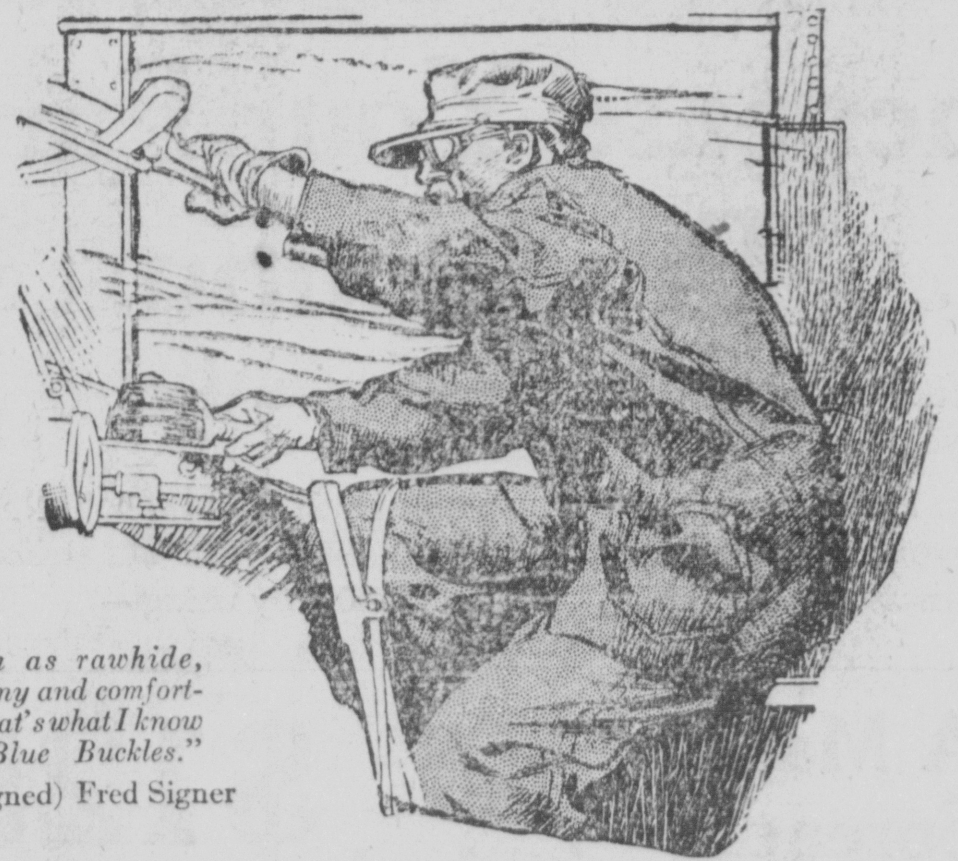

For weeks, for months it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.

Every spoonful of every can is the same—pure and dependable. Try it.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Gold Cake Recipe

Yolks of 8 eggs, 1½ cups of granulated sugar, ¾ cup of water, 1 cup of butter, 2½ cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder 1 tablespoon of vanilla. Then mix in regular way.

TWO MEN BORN ON SAME DAY, VOTED TOGETHER—VISIT

Louis Lowenstein Entertains Old Time Friend From Wichita—White Hall Happenings

White Hall, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Elijah Israel and her son, Reuben C. Israel, wife and daughter of Wichita, Kansas, were guests of friends in the city last week. Mrs. Elijah Israel is now past eighty-six years of age. She came by train to St. Louis where she was joined by the rest of the party who had made the trip via automobile and they then motored to White Hall and expected to visit a number of other points in Illinois before returning to their home. The party went from here to Murfreesville and from there the elder Mrs. Israel expected to go to Griggsville.

The Israel party were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lowenstein at the Methodist church dinner Thursday and Mr. Lowenstein told the reporter an interesting story concerning himself and Mr. Israel, "Rube," as he called him. The two men were born on the same day and went together to cast their first ballot. That was in 1876. Mr. Lowenstein was and is still a Republican and he voted for Hayes. Mr. Israel was and is yet a Democrat. He voted for Tilden. Mr. Lowenstein suggested to his friend that he, Rube, should vote first and then Mr. Lowenstein would vote and kill his vote. He said they had been doing that way ever since with few exceptions. The Democrats have won a few times.

Preceding the dinner at the church Thursday Mr. Lowenstein took his friend down to Hillview to see the Hillview drainage district where they had formerly hunted the wild duck in the big lakes which have since been drained and are now in a high state of cultivation. Mr. Israel was very much impressed with the change and secured a fine specimen of corn to send back to Wichita to his brother, Fred Israel, who is a druggist at that place. The Israel family formerly resided in White Hall. R. C. Israel is in the real estate business now but for many years was engaged in merchandising.

Round Table Meets

The White Hall Round Table met Friday, October 22, at the home of Mrs. J. V. Nevius. There was a good attendance and roll call was responded to with short sketches of Canadian Patriots. The club is studying Canada this year and Mrs. W. P. Lowenstein read a very interesting paper on the Maritime Provinces, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

At the close of the paper Mrs. H. W. Shirley, who is not a member of the club, gave a most excellent travelogue descriptive of her trip to Canada this past summer. She also showed a number of kodak views which she secured on the trip that added much to the enjoyment of her narrative. The club extended her a rising vote of thanks.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. H. L. Story on Nov. 5. The roll call will be Lakes of Canada. Mrs. M. J. Black will read a paper on the Central Provinces, Ontario and Quebec. Mrs. H. O. Tunison will describe her trip up the St. Lawrence river.

One new member was voted in at the meeting Friday. That was Mrs. E. C. Pearce.

White Hall Brevities

Henry Porter who has been quite ill for some time is reported to be improving, but is not yet able to sit up. He is a veteran of the Civil war and his advanced age is deterring his recovery.

N. R. Mason who has been seriously ill for more than a year is reported to be slowly slipping away. He is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Perry Campbell in Roodhouse where he is constantly attended by his wife and daughters.

A number of Benevolent Lodge Odd Fellows went to Roodhouse Tuesday night to attend a meeting at which all the Odd Fellows in Greene county were invited. The continued rain cut down the attendance very materially. It has been raining almost continually since Friday night. Part of the time the rain is only a mist and at other times it comes down with pep. The roads are getting thoroughly soaked and travel is handicapped.

Mrs. J. B. Stetson of Sheffield is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Claude Lowenstein.

Miss Selma Brell has returned to her home in St. Louis after visiting relatives here for a week or more. Mrs. Fleet Barnett gave a dinner party in her honor during her visit.

The Duncan Sisters sang at the funeral of Alex. Lynn at Carrollton one day last week. Mr. Lynn died at Chester and was brought back to his old home in Carrollton for burial.

Misses Emma Griswold and Etta Gullette were shopping in St. Louis last week.

Mrs. E. M. Prindle is expecting her son, George Prindle and his bride from Georgetown, Minn., about the first of November for a visit. George was married October 27 to a Minnesota girl.

MAINTENANCE PREVALENT AMONG RICH CHILDREN

Springfield, Ill.—Malnutrition is found, upon investigating to be as prevalent among the children of the well-to-do as among the children of the poorer classes, according to Dr. C. St. Claire Drake, head of the state department of public health.

This deficiency, he said, arises not from a lack of quantity but from giving children food which contains little or no nourishing qualities. In some communities where school children have been examined, malnutrition has been found to run as high as 10 per cent.

LEGION AUXILIARY FORMED AT BLUFFS

Organization Has Thirteen Charter Members—Accident In Bluffs Restaurant

Bluffs, Oct. 28.—An auxiliary of the American Legion, Charles Wolford Post, was organized Monday evening with thirteen charter members. Mrs. E. D. Beird was chosen president; Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, vice-president, and Mrs. Maurice O'Brien secretary and treasurer.

Fourteen, representing the C. I. P. S., held a business meeting here Wednesday. They will have a man stationed here from now on, which is badly needed, and all are glad to hear the news.

Monday evening, at Ballard & Johnston's hotel, a very strange accident happened. A man had been drinking from a glass, having finished, set the glass back on the counter when it "exploded" and glass flew all over the room. Miss Beamblossom stood some distance away and was struck on the back of the hand above the knuckles, cutting the hand so fingers dropped down. The doctor dressed the hand and she is getting along nicely. No accounting for the glass breaking, as it was not struck in any way.

Mrs. E. G. Gray made a business trip to St. Louis Tuesday and Wednesday. She went to buy goods, finding it impossible to get it by order, and decided to make the trip and buy directly.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Atkins have returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in southern Illinois.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Westermeyer Tuesday morning. The little one lived only a lived only a short time.

Rev. Rees and wife were called to Canton Wednesday evening by the death of Mrs. Rees' sister, Mrs. A. R. Peterson. She has been ill for some time but the late reports have been very encouraging, so this was quite a shock to the family. Miss Fay Rees came home in the afternoon to go with her parents. Mrs. John Stickler and Betty Jane went also, she being a niece of the deceased lady.

Charles Wolford Post have arranged it so the election returns may be received there Tuesday evening. They will serve lunch during the night.

Cream soups better than you've ever made before!

Hot tomato soup—how good it is for lunch-eon or supper! It is good the way you make it now, but next time, make it this way with Libby's Evaporated Milk:

2 cups Libby's Evapo-rated Milk 2 cups tomato 1-4 cup water
1-4 teaspoon salt 2 teaspoons minced onion
1 teaspoon sugar 1-4 teaspoon soda
1 tablespoon flour cayenne pepper

Scald the milk and thicken with the flour, which should be rubbed into a little cold milk to make a smooth paste and this added slowly to the hot milk. Stir constantly for a few moments while the flour cooks. Add salt, sugar and the cayenne pepper mixed with the water.

Cook the tomato and the minced onion for ten minutes and strain. There should be no lumps or seeds left in. Return to the fire and add the soda. Combine the tomato and the cooked milk and serve at once with croutons. Serves six.

See how much richer Libby's Evaporated Milk makes all your cream soups—and everything in which you use it. It is fine, pure milk with more than half the moisture removed; nothing added. It is sterilized—to come to you fresh and pure.

And it is so economical, so convenient you will wonder how you ever kept house without it!
